

Legal Training Agenda 2020

Paralegal: Upgrade Your Skills

 March 5th, 6th, 10th, 12th and 13th

 1500 €

 Professionals of the legal sector & professors at the University of Luxembourg

Participants will discover the Luxembourgish legal framework, contract law, corporate law and further develop personal and professional communication skills.

Additional modules in investment funds, banking law, tax law or contract law are also offered.

Luxembourgish Law per Practice Area for Newly Appointed Lawyers

 From March 17th to 19th

 1300 €

 Professionals of the legal sector & professors at the University of Luxembourg

This course is dedicated to professionals who demonstrate an advanced level in their field of expertise but who need to strengthen their knowledge about Luxembourgish law.

Additional modules in investment funds, banking law, tax law or contract law are also offered.

Optimise Your Individual and Collective Organisation

 March 27th

 550 €

 William CARGILL & Michel LEHRER

Participants will be able to carry out pragmatic strategies, allowing them to optimise their time and priorities and manage their stress effectively.

Upgrade Your Public Speaking Skills

 May 19th & 26th

 1100 €

 Dirk DAENEN

Participants will sharpen their oral presentation skills and learn how to engage the audience.

Legal Project Management

 May 14th & 15th

 1100 €

 Marion EHMANN

This training aims at explaining project management techniques and how to apply them in the legal sector.

Knowledge Management: New Opportunities

 June 3rd & 17th

 1100 €

 Gonzague CHASTENET DE GÉRY

This training responds to a crucial challenge: how to gain in efficiency, responsiveness and reliability through the implementation of KM tools. Discover the principles of KM, its tools and best practices while rethinking your strategy in order to emphasize the intellectual capital of your firm.

Legal Design Thinking

 November 16th & 23th

 650 €

 Romain HAZEBROUCQ

The challenge of this training is to trigger a new way of thinking, putting the client into the centre of the reflection of the creation process of a legal act. Nowadays, legal design thinking largely contributes to the corporate identity of a law firm.

Customer Relationship Management

 November 17th & 24th

 1100 €

 Romain HAZEBROUCQ

Customer centricity has become essential for any law firm. Participants will thus learn how to develop a sustainable customer relationship approach, a cultural and organizational change.

 all our prices are excluding VAT*

Moreover, the legal and financial cluster also offers tailor-made training programmes that can be adapted to your specific needs.

Who are our speakers?

In order to combine academic and practical aspects, our speakers are professors at the University of Luxembourg and / or professionals from the legal sector.

Reliable partner for the legal sector

The Competence Centre takes on the role of one of the most reliable partners for the legal sector by working closely with major players. Through quality training, in-depth needs analysis and a regular exchange with key stakeholders and partners, the legal cluster proposes relevant and efficient training programmes.

All our courses are approved by the Barreau de Luxembourg and give the right to training points.

For further information corine.philippart@competence.lu or visit our website:

competence.lu

